

WWW.NWDCT.ORG

North Walsham and Dilham Canal Trust

Registered Charitable Incorporated Organisation No. 1180474

Working to secure Norfolk's Canal Heritage

contact:secretary@nwdct.org

YOUR CANAL NEEDS YOU

Why not join our volunteers?
Contact us on secretary@nwdct.org

Work Party Volunteers – the Muddy Ones

The Work Parties – every other Sunday and Thursday – learn new skills – meet new people – a green gym – from grass sowing to bricklaying – from reed cutting to bank repairs – from boat painting to plant maintenance – from driving big toys to wielding shovels – and feeling good knowing that you have helped.

Boat Crews – the Wet Ones

Helping to man, crew and steer the Trust's boats.

Work pontoons, work boat, maintenance craft.

Trip Boats – chatting to passengers, telling them about the Canal.

Craft Maintenance – Training given.

Wildlife, Fisheries and Rangers – the Green Ones

Help the team monitoring wildlife, fauna and flora; keeping an eye on the fish and angling; assisting canal users, whether on the bank or using the waters.

Support – the Suited Ones

Help with media, events, talks, finance, education, ICT, website, membership, grants, sales, history, archaeology, archives, displays, making cakes, meeting people.

